Physical Description Chadd Stag has tough gristly cartilaginous cerulean skin. His body is littered with wrinkles and scars. The most prominent scar rests under his oval crimson eyes on the skin that covers his olfactory organs. The slash-mark gives off an emerald hue where the skin is thinnest due to the Duros' green blood color. Some folds on his legs are more obvious than the many wrinkles due to his trouble during his larval stage. His cheeks make him look even more gaunt than most Duros, almost making them non-existent. His body is heavy set and quite plump in some places. There are some tattoos on his back that depict his many offspring.		Loadout Weapons * Power Hammer
General Aspects
Grumpese There is no reason to smile when nobody can see your lips. Chadd's sighs and grunts can make it difficult for even the most optimistic leader to give him orders. He just never seems to look forward to anything. While this can be incredibly grating towards any superior, he also never asks for anything and is self-motivating. He hates lying, can't stand dishonest people and will never be caught being untruthful himself.		Thorough When you do it, you gotta do it right. That's Stag's motto. He makes sure everything looks pristine, works smoothly and uses the highest quality materials to make it happen. This striving for perfection takes a lot of time and stingy administrators will vilify his hunger for expensive tools. But when he repairs or creates machinery you can be assured that it will work better than new.
Personality Aspects
The Fearless Machinist This Duros has no sense of self-preservation whether he wields a broomstick or a power hammer. His abs and flabs can be intimidating and his lack of hygiene can scare off even Womp rats. However, those that aren't easily intimidated will soon consider him blaster fodder as his bravery knows no bounds. He also loves to yell "Hammertime!" in moments of glory and he has the moves to go with it.		Mysticismquisition With no affinity in the Force and Chadd barely being literate enough to read a holonovel, it is quite strange that he has such a curiosity for spiritualism. Maybe he just wants his wrench or broomstick to work all by itself. Or perhaps he has seen some pretty strange things in his childhood. But the matter of the fact is that he is very comfortable around Force Users and begs superiors to give him a job to guard their trinkets.
Combat Aspects

The Hammerer
 His hammer is his life. He keeps it clean and polishes it every day. Yet he knows nothing of ranged combat, but some have seen him throw a Power Hammer with pinpoint precision. Some of his colleagues have been at the receiving end of a thrown wrench too. And while the scarred Durose is a highly effective melee combatant, he would be easy to take out with a simple blastershot.

Upstanding Citizen
 Chadd Stag hates to leave a mess. When he has to swing his blunt weaponry he usually tries to hit areas of the body that don't bleed too much. He makes sure that all the liquids stay inside a body. If something does spill out he will clean it up immediately. He's known to bandage dead people, barely even taking the effort to check their pulse. He even goes so far as to prevent his opponent from using explosives at all and never bothers carrying messy weaponry himself.
